

104TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. RES. 231

Extending sympathies to the people of Scotland.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 14 (legislative day, MARCH 13), 1996

Mr. WELLSTONE (for himself and Mr. BRADLEY) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Extending sympathies to the people of Scotland.

Whereas all Americans were horrified by the news this morning that 16 kindergarten children and their teacher were shot and killed yesterday in Dunblane, Scotland, by an individual who invaded their school;

Whereas another 12 children and 3 adults were apparently wounded in the same terrible assault;

Whereas this was an unspeakable tragedy of huge dimensions causing tremendous feelings of horror and anger and sadness affecting all people around the world; and

Whereas the people of the United States wish to extend their sympathy to the people of Scotland in their hours of hurt and pain and grief: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate, on behalf of the American
2 people, does extend its condolences and sympathies to the
3 families of the little children and others who were mur-
4 dered and wounded, and to all the people of Scotland, with 5 fervent hopes and prayers that such an occurrence will
6 never, ever again take place.
